

Pedagogical Employee Beeklaan 25,5 hours, English

Are you an enthusiastic English-speaking pedagogical professional? Would you like to be part of an ambitious but small-scale child care organization in full bloom? Then Villa Bloom invites you to strengthen our team! We are looking for a reliable pedagogical employee for our location at Beeklaan, The Hague.

About Villa Bloom

Since 2011, Villa Bloom has been offering high-quality bilingual childcare, where we have developed our own unique vision to guide children in their development. At Villa Bloom, the happiness and development of the child are central, with an emphasis on independence, freedom within limits, and respect for nature. We believe it's important for children to spend time outdoors, as "Those who spend a lot of time in nature will want to protect it in the future." We provide a safe and loving environment where children can develop at their own pace. Discovering, playing, learning, and growing - that's what we stand for at Villa Bloom.

Our Beeklaan location is located opposite the European School The Hague. Here, we have three groups: the Ladybugs (0-2 years), the Bumblebees (2-3 years), and the Butterflies (3-5 years). The team consists of approximately 10 employees.

What will you do

As a pedagogical employee at Villa Bloom, Beeklaan, you will be responsible for the daily care, development, and nurturing of a group of children. You will focus on the Ladybugs and the Bumblebees!

You will perform the following tasks:

- Creating a safe group atmosphere where children feel comfortable and are encouraged in their development, according to the pedagogical policy plan;
- Guiding children in daily activities and organizing development-oriented activities inside and outside the location;
- Being responsible for mentoring the assigned children, supported by the pedagogical coach and the location manager;
- Monitoring children's development through observation methods and reporting this monthly to the location manager and pedagogical coach via group meetings and child records and reports;
- Performing light household tasks in the group and contributing to the hygiene and good condition of the inventories;
- Guiding and instructing, when present in the group, the group assistants and interns and reporting on this periodically to the location manager and/or the pedagogical coach.

What do we offer you

In our flourishing, international, and inspiring work environment, you are part of a motivated and dedicated team that is continuously developing.

Additionally, we offer:

- An employment contract of 25,5 hours per week;
- Salary in scale 6 according to the childcare collective labor agreement;
- An end-of-year bonus of 3%;
- Travel allowance and pension scheme;
- The possibility of collective health insurance;
- Various courses and workshops offered by us to further develop yourself;

Who are you

You are a pedagogical professional at heart and are aware of how important and valuable your work is for the development of children. You understand the importance of playing outdoors and healthy nutrition for children. You are the first to put on those rain boots and take the children outside; you see opportunities everywhere and share your enthusiasm with the children.

For this position, we are looking for a pedagogical employee for 25,5 hours per week.

- You have an MBO/HBO diploma that qualifies you to work in childcare as a pedagogical employee. Not sure? You can check this at: <https://www.kinderopvang-werkt.nl/diplomacheck-kinderopvang>;
- You are a nature lover and fit well with the vision of Villa Bloom;
- You have a positive personality;
- You are a true team player, you enjoy working together with a close-knit group of colleagues;
- You have a passion for working with children and intuitively understand their needs;
- You are caring, have a sense of responsibility, and have excellent communication skills.
